

Parents – what to expect if your daughter wins Miss Washtenaw County's Outstanding Teen (AKA the money part)

What the Miss Washtenaw's Outstanding Teen pageant will pay for/provide:

Entry fee to Miss Michigan's Outstanding Teen ($300 in 2018)

½ of MMOT opening number after ($75 in 2018)

official crown official sash

official nametag

official portrait (usually taken after MMOT) portion of MMOT active wear outfit (aprox. $50) coaching with all phases of competition (interview/paperwork, modeling, hair & make-up, wardrobe selection, talent)

various meals and coffees during pageant preparation :)

what parents are expected to provide:

purchase/acquisition of all competition wardrobe not indicated above (interview outfit, talent outfit, evening gown, jewelry, shoes, makeup, remaining balance for opening number outfit and active wear outfit)

food & lodging during MMOT week in Muskegon, MI

cocktail dresses/additional outfits for appearances tickets to MMOT/local pageants (when titleholders don't get in free)

professional headshots

additional talent prep, if necessary (more lessons, new costume, background track etc.)

gas ('cause you'll be driving A LOT)